you got no right
to steal the light
people freezing
while you be teasing
in the cold cold winter of 78

where the hawk stalked
without a balk
laid and played
while very few prayed
in the cold cold winter of 78

dont stay in bed
the governor said
you got to fight back
the blizzard is just looking for somebody to attack
in the cold cold winter of 78

january was a mess
the wind was bold
and oh my goodness
it sho was cold
in the cold cold winter of 78

everybody complained bout what was being done with a very slim excuse cause they couldnt have fun
in the cold cold winter of 78

stores closed their doors everything followed suit
where the order of the day was shovel and boots

it didnt seem right
everything being white
some say it was a sin
or the will of the wind
